AGREEMENTS AND DISCLOSURES

These agreements and disclosures contain important membership information, necessary truth-in-savings account disclosures, electronic services agreement and disclosures, funds availability policy, substitute share drafts and your rights, wire transfer agreement, privacy policy disclosure. Please be certain to read these agreements and disclosures carefully and notify us at once if any parts are unclear.

Throughout these agreements and disclosures, the references to “We,” “Us,” “Our” and “Credit Union” mean ONE DETROIT CREDIT UNION. The words “You” and “Your” mean each person applying for and/or using any of the services described herein. “Account” means any account or accounts established for You as set forth in these agreements and disclosures. The word “Card” means any ATM Card or MasterCard Debit Card issued to You by Us and any duplicates or renewals We may issue. Our Audio Response System is hereinafter referred to as “Televoice,” whereas Our Personal Computer Account Access System is hereinafter referred to as “One2Go.” “E-Check” means any check which You authorize the payee to process electronically. For joint accounts, read singular pronouns in the plural.

ONE DETROIT CREDIT UNION MEMBERSHIP

To apply for membership with One Detroit Credit Union, You must complete, sign and return an application for membership.

Your signature on Your application for membership informs the Credit Union that You would like to join the Credit Union and that You agree to conform to the Credit Union’s Bylaws and Amendments.

Credit Union membership is granted to applicants within One Detroit Credit Union’s common bond as outlined in the Credit Union’s Charter.

Eligibility also includes spouses of persons who died within the field of membership; Credit Union employees; persons retired as pensioners or annuitants from organizations within the Credit Union’s common bond; and organizations of such persons. By signing Your application for membership, You acknowledge receipt of these agreements and disclosures, including the terms and conditions which apply to Your Accounts.

FAMILY MEMBERSHIP

Credit Union members in good standing and whose status is currently within the Credit Union’s common bond (as outlined therein) may sponsor immediate family members and possibly other members of Your household for Credit Union membership. Eligible family members may include for instance: father, mother, brother, sister, son, daughter, grandmother, grandfather and spouse (which may include anyone living in Your residence that You maintain a single economic unit with).

ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

YOU AGREE AND ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THIS AGREEMENT CONTROLS YOUR ACCOUNT(S) WITH ONE DETROIT CREDIT UNION, TOGETHER WITH ANY OTHER RELATED DOCUMENT SUCH AS OUR FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY AND ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFER AGREEMENT AND/OR AGREEMENTS AND DISCLOSURES, ALL OF WHICH, TO THE EXTENT APPLICABLE, ARE INCORPORATED INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY REFERENCE.

ACCOUNT OWNERSHIP

JOINT ACCOUNTS. If Your Account is owned jointly, then all funds on deposit are owned by any of the joint Owners with right of survivorship. The joint Owners of the Accounts hereby agree with each other and with Us that all sums now, whenever paid into the Accounts by any or all of the joint Owners to the credit of the joint Owners with all accumulations thereon, are and shall be owned by them jointly, with right of survivorship and be subject to the withdrawal or receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them or the survivor or survivors shall be valid and discharge Us from any liability for such payment. You authorize Us to recognize any of the signatures subscribed in Your application for membership, the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for the Accounts. We can release or pay any amount on deposit in Your Account to any Owner. We can honor checks, withdrawals, orders or requests from any Owner. All Owners are liable to Us for any overdrafts that may occur on Your Account, regardless of whether or not a benefit occurred and checks cashed against any Account are subject to collectability from such Account if returned unpaid. Any Owner may provide Us written notice to freeze funds on deposit and We may, at Our option, honor such written request. If We do, then the Account will remain frozen until We receive subsequent written notice signed by all Owners of the Account as to a disposition of funds on deposit. Any or all of the joint Owners may pledge all or any part of the shares in the Accounts as collateral security to a loan or loans and any funds on deposit may be utilized to satisfy any debt or garnishment of any Owner of the Account. The right or authority of the Credit Union under these Agreements And Disclosures shall not be changed or terminated by said owners or any of them except by written notice to Us, which shall not affect transactions made prior to such notice. It is the responsibility of joint account Owners to determine any legal effects of opening and maintaining a joint account.

CUSTODIAL ACCOUNTS. Any custodial Account is subject to the Michigan Uniform Transfers To Minors Act and it is Your responsibility to determine any legal effects related to this type of Account. You understand and agree that the gift of money to the minor named at the time You open such Account includes all dividends thereon and any future additions thereto, is irrevocable and is made in accordance with and is to include all provisions of the Michigan Uniform Transfers To Minors Act as it is now or hereafter amended. The age of delivery to custodian FBO minor shall be upon the age of 18 unless otherwise specified by the custodian under the Michigan Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

TRUST ACCOUNTS. Trust Accounts will only be opened by the Credit Union if the Trust documentation presented by You to the Credit Union is in a manner acceptable to Our underwriting policies. It is Your responsibility to determine and understand any legal effects related to this type of Account. We require all Trust Accounts to name a beneficiary. You agree that all sums whenever paid to the Trust Account shall be held by the Trustee(s) in trust for the beneficiary(ies) named, subject to the right of the Trustee(s) to revoke the same in whole or in part by, and to the extent of, the withdrawal of sums from the Account.

Upon the death of the Trustee (or if more than one, upon the death of the last surviving Trustee), the balance remaining in the Account shall be distributed by the Credit Union to the beneficiary or, if there is more than one beneficiary, then to the beneficiaries then living in equal shares unless otherwise designated in the Trust documentation. Where more than one Trustee appears on the Account, withdrawals and the pledge of shares against loans may be made by any Trustee acting alone (unless two signatures are required). Shares paid in by the Trustees shall be owned equally. Upon the death of one Trustee, all rights in and to the Account shall belong to any surviving Trustee. In the event of conflicting demands for funds under the Account, the Credit Union may require the signatures of each of the Trustees. For Revocable and Living Trust Accounts, the individual establishing the Trust (the “Settlor”) must be a member of the Credit Union and any withdrawal of Trust Account funds will be deemed a revocation of the Trust to the extent of any such withdrawal unless otherwise provided for in the Trust documentation. If the Account Designation shows a payable-on-death status, any Beneficiary has rights to the Account: (a) if the Beneficiary is a natural person, only if the Beneficiary is alive and only if the Settlor is deceased; (b) if the Beneficiary is a charity or other non-profit organization, only if the charity or non-profit organization is in operation as a validly constituted, registered and/or licensed entity under applicable state law, and only if the Settlor is deceased. If the Beneficiary dies (in the case of a natural person), or is no longer in operation as a validly constituted, registered and/or licensed entity under applicable state law (in the case of a charity or non-profit organization), the Trust is terminated. The Settlor may change the Beneficiary at any time by providing Us adequate proof of such change in a manner acceptable to the Credit Union. If at any time, the Trustee is deemed incompetent by a court of legal jurisdiction or is unable or unwilling to serve, the Trust documentation shall determine the successor Trustee.

PAYABLE-ON-DEATH STATUS. If the Account Designation shows a payable-on-death status, any Beneficiary has rights to the Account: (a) if the Beneficiary is a natural person, only if the Beneficiary is alive and only if You and any joint Owners are deceased; (b) if the Beneficiary is a charity or other non-profit organization, only if the charity or non-profit organization is in operation as a validly constituted, registered and/or licensed entity under applicable state law, and You and any joint Owners are deceased. Upon Your death and the death of any joint Owners, the funds on deposit will be paid to the beneficiary(ies) of record in equal shares unless You designated otherwise. If, however, none of the payable-on-death beneficiaries You named is alive (or in operation as a validly constituted, registered and/or licensed entity under applicable state law in the case of a charity or non-profit organization) at Your death, the funds will be paid to the party or parties as required by applicable law. It is the responsibility of all Account Owners to determine any legal effects of opening and maintaining an Account with payable-on-death status.

FIDUCIARY ACCOUNTS. If your Account is established as a fiduciary Account, you warrant that you are authorized to open a fiduciary Account and understand that such Accounts will only be opened by the Credit Union if the documentation presented by you to the Credit Union is in a manner acceptable to our underwriting policies. In no event will the Credit Union be liable for the actions of the fiduciary and/or other party to the fact that the fiduciary is in compliance with any instructions that have been provided to them. It is your responsibility to determine and understand any legal effects related to this type of Account.

ARBITRATION. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to these Agreements and Disclosures, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Arbitration rules and any agreement entered on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. All parties hereby waive and give up all rights to a jury trial or class action relief.

INDEMNITY. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Credit Union and their successors and assigns, from any claim, action, liability, loss, damage or suit, arising out of any action or inaction on our part in connection with these Agreements And Disclosures and/or your failure to abide by its terms. In the event of any claim, we shall provide you with reasonable and timely notice of such claim, and thereafter you shall at your own expense defend, protect and hold harmless the Credit Union against said claim or any loss or liability thereunder. In the event you fail to defend and/or indemnify and hold us harmless, then in such instance we shall have full rights to defend, pay or settle said claim on your behalf without notice to you and with full right of recourse against you for all fees, costs, expenses and payments made or agreed to be paid to discharge said claim. You further agree to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees necessary to enforce such provision. Such indemnity shall be unlimited in amount and duration and be binding upon and inure to the benefit of all parties, their successors, assigns and personal representatives.

POWER OF ATTORNEY. If you name a person to act as your attorney-in-fact or agent in any way with your Account, we are only obligated to deal with such person if we, in our sole judgment, approve of the form of appointment and the supporting documentation.

DEPOSIT OF ITEMS. You may make deposits to your Account using any method available from us, including deposits in person, by mail or electronic means. We have the right to refuse to accept any check or instrument for deposit at our sole discretion. If you deposit an item and it is returned unpaid, we will debit your Account for the amount of the item and charge you a fee. You will be liable to us for the amount of any item you deposit which is returned unpaid, and in addition, will be responsible for our costs and expenses incurred in the collection of such returned item from you, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Subject to our Funds Availability Policy, you may not be able to withdraw funds from your Account until we have received final settlement for any items deposited. If you make a deposit on a Saturday, Sunday, or a holiday, the deposit will be credited to your Account as of the next business day.

COLLECTION AND PROCESSING OF ITEMS. In processing items you have deposited for collection, we are only your agent and assume no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. Any item deposited is subject to final settlement in cash or credit. We may use any method we feel is appropriate to collect items, which may include use of a Federal Reserve Bank. We are not responsible for the acts of any third party we use for the collection of items including the loss of lost items. If we use a local clearinghouse in the collection of items, you authorize us to do so and to act in accordance with any applicable rules and regulations. We may permit you to withdraw funds from your Account before final settlement has been made, however, if final settlement is not made, we have the right to charge your Account or otherwise require you to repay such funds. In processing items presented for payment on your Account, we will pay such items each business day in an order of our choosing, all of which means that the transactions may not be processed in the order in which they occurred and that you could incur multiple fees in a single day should there be insufficient available funds to pay all items presented that day.

STANDARD OVERRRAFT PROTECTION. To the extent you have elected to have O verrraft Protection and to the extent permitted by law, you authorize us to transfer funds from other Accounts you may have with us in necessary multiples (or in such increments as we may from time to time determine) to your Account to cover any O verrraft. If you have a line of credit with us, transfers will be made first from your line of credit up to your available credit limit, then from your primary share Account, provided you have sufficient available funds in that Account, and then we may elect to pay such O verrraft, subject to any preference you have indicated to us for clearing any O verrraft(s). O verrraft transfers are subject to a transfer fee. You hold us harmless from any and all liability which might otherwise exist if a transfer does not occur.

OVERRRAFTS. You understand and agree that we may from time to time, and at our sole discretion, pay certain items in order to cover an O verrraft, and charge you a fee for doing so. You further understand that payment of any O verrrafts will be made in an order of our choosing. You hold us harmless from any and all liability which might otherwise exist if we do not pay an O verrraft. If you would like to opt-out, that is, if you would prefer we not pay any share drafts that would o verrraft your share draft Account, you may opt-out by writing to us at the address in this Agreement or by calling us at the telephone number shown in this Agreement and informing us of your intention to opt-out.

NOTICE OF RECEIPT OF ACH ITEMS. Under the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your Account and as permitted by law, we are not required to give you next day notice of receipt of an ACH item, and we will not do so. We will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements we provide to you.

PROVISIONAL PAYMENT (ACH ORIGINATION). Credits given by any Receiving Depository Financial Institution to the receiver with respect to any automated clearing house credit entries subject to article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC-4A), are provisional until the Receiving Depository Financial Institution has received final settlement through a Federal Reserve Bank, or has otherwise received payment as provided in §4A-403(a) of UCC-4A. If the Receiving Depository Financial Institution does not receive such final settlement or payment, then they shall be entitled to a refund from the receiver of the amount so credited, and we shall not be deemed to have paid the receiver the amount of such entry.

PROVISIONAL PAYMENT (ACH RECEIPT). Credit given by us to you with respect to any automated clearing house credit entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for such entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive final settlement, you are hereby notified and agree we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with such entry, and the party making payment to you via such entry (i.e., the originator of the entry) shall not be deemed to have paid you the amount of such entry.

CHOICE OF LAW. We may accept payments on your behalf for Account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses ("ACH") and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act. Your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the state of Michigan as provided by the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your Account.

EXPENSES. If we incur any costs or expenses as a result of any attachment, garnishment or levy against your Account, you will reimburse us for such costs or expenses or we may charge them to your Account.

INACTIVE OR DORMANT ACCOUNTS. Inactive Accounts (Accounts with no withdrawals or deposits within a one-year period) may be subject to an Inactive Account Fee. We have no liability if your Account becomes dormant and is therefore subject to escheatment in accordance with state and/or federal law.

LIEN IMPRESSION AND SET-OFF. You agree that we may impress and enforce a statutory lien upon your Accounts with us to the extent you owe us any money and we may enforce our right to do so without further notice to you. We have the right to set-off any of your money or property in our possession against any amount you owe us. The right of set-off and our impressed lien does not extend to any Keogh, IRA or similar tax deferred deposit you may have with us. If

Your Account is owned jointly, Our right of set-off and Our impressed lien extends to any amount owed to Us by any of the joint Owners.

CREDIT REPORTING NOTICE. We may report information about Your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on Your account may be reflected in Your credit report.

MINIMUM BALANCE REQUIREMENTS, FEES AND SERVICE CHARGES. You agree to pay Us any applicable fees or charges, and are responsible for any minimum balance requirements and deposit requirements called for in Our Agreements and Disclosures provided to You when You opened Your Account. In any case and with proper notice to You, fees, charges, balance requirements and deposit requirements may be changed by Us from time to time.

SUSPENSION OF SERVICES. We have the right to suspend the benefit of any Credit Union service at any time for reasonable cause. At Our discretion, We also have the right to charge any share draft presented for payment from Your Account after Your Account is closed or suspended and to recover such amount paid from You.

Account services are available to those members in good standing with the Credit Union. We reserve the right to cancel or suspend services to a member who is not in good standing, which includes members that have: (a) a delinquent loan; (b) a primary Share Account balance below the $10.00 minimum; (c) an unresolved deposited returned check; (d) any unpaid and uncollected fees; (e) a negative balance on an Account; (f) caused a financial loss to the Credit Union; or (g) provided Us an invalid address.

ASSIGNABILITY. You may not assign or transfer any interest in Your Account.

AGREEMENTS AND DISCLOSURES. The Agreements and Disclosures provided to You at the time You opened Your Account and referred to throughout this Agreement contain: (a) a list of fees and charges applicable to Your Account; (b) the dividends and applicable Annual Percentage Yield (APY); (c) how dividends are credited or compounded; and (d) other pertinent information related to Your Account. Your Agreements and Disclosures may be amended by Us from time to time in a manner as prescribed by law.

STOP PAYMENTS. You may ask Us orally to stop payment on a share draft. For any such request to remain valid, however, You must also supply Us with a written request within 14 days after You make any such oral request. Stop payment requests are also subject to the terms and conditions of the Order For Stop Payment Form related to any such request. Your request must be given to Us in a timely manner so that We have a reasonable opportunity to act on Your request. We are not liable if We pay a share draft which You have requested Us to stop payment on as long as We act in good faith and exercise ordinary care.

In any event, any damages that We might otherwise be liable for shall not exceed the amount of the involved share draft. If We do pay a share draft for which You have requested stop payment and as a result any other item is returned unpaid by Us due to insufficient available funds, We are not liable for any consequences resulting from such action. If Your Account is a joint Account, any Owner of the Account may request a stop payment. Any release of a stop payment order must be made by the person who made the request. If You ask Us to stop payment on a pre-authorized transfer, Your request will be processed under the provisions of Our Electronic Fund Transfer Agreement with You. Stop payment requests are also subject to the terms and conditions of the order for stop payment form related to any such request.

You may also ask Us to stop payment on a lost or stolen cashier's, teller or certified check and if You do, You agree to execute a declaration of loss and if You do, You agree to execute a declaration of loss and consent to receive electronic documentation form, any communications covered by such disclosure and consent shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in that disclosure and consent.

SHARE DRAFTS AND OTHER ACCOUNT ACCESS DEVICES. Any share draft or other Account access device which does not meet Our standards for acceptance may be rejected by Us, whether such standards are established by law, regulation or Our own policy.

POSTDATED, STALE OR OVERDRAFT SHARE DRAFTS. You understand that postdating a share draft will have no effect on whether or not it is honored prior to or after the date of any such share draft. A stale share draft is any share draft received by Us that is dated six months or more prior to the date of receipt. We may pay or refuse to pay any postdated, stale or overdraft share draft, or other item presented for payment on Your Account without any liability.

SHARE DRAFT SAFEKEEPING. Share draft Safekeeping is automatic on Your Account and unless You specifically request otherwise and agree to pay any associated fees, Your cancelled share drafts will not be returned to You. You understand that cancelled share drafts retained by Us are later destroyed after a reasonable period of time. If You subsequently request a copy of a share draft and We are unable to supply it, then We shall not be liable for any damage You may sustain in excess of the face amount of the involved share draft.

PERIODIC STATEMENTS. You will be provided with a periodic statement showing activity on Your Account. If You believe any statement reflects discrepancies, You must notify Us of such discrepancies within 60 days from the date We mailed the statement to You. If the discrepancy noted is the result of an electronic fund transfer, then the provisions of Our Electronic Fund Transfer Agreement with You will control resolution of the matter.

AMENDMENTS. This Agreement may be amended by Us at any time, in which case We will provide You with a notice of amendment as required by law or regulation.

NOTIFICATION OF ADDRESS CHANGE. You will notify Us promptly in writing with Your signature if You move or otherwise have a change of address. In the event We are unable to locate You, You agree to pay all fees associated with maintaining an invalid address in Our records and any costs and locator fees incurred in Our locating efforts.

WAIVERS. You agree and understand that Our failure or delay to exercise any right, remedy, power, or privilege available to Us pursuant to this Agreement shall not affect or disallow Our future exercise of that right, remedy, power or privilege.

PROHIBITED INTERNET GAMBLING TRANSACTIONS. Except for accounts established for Consumer purposes, all transactions in connection with the participation of another person in unlawful internet gambling are prohibited from being processed through Your Account. Such transactions include those involving the use of: (a) credit, or the proceeds of credit, extended to or on behalf of another person (including credit extended through the use of a credit card); or (b) electronic fund transfers, or funds transmitted by or through a money transmitting business, or the proceeds of an electronic fund transfer or money transmitting service, from or on behalf of another person; or (c) any check, draft, or similar instrument that is drawn by or on behalf of another person and is drawn on or payable at or through any financial institution.

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS. By applying for membership in the Credit Union, You authorize Us to send You, from time to time, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, electronic communications regarding the status of any share draft, and/or term Account(s) You maintain with Us. You also authorize Us to send You electronic communications regarding any other accounts You may maintain with Us from time to time including, but not limited to, loan accounts, credit line accounts, and credit card accounts. These electronic communications are sometimes referred to as "transactional or relationship messages."

You authorize Us to contact You using any wireless, cellular, mobile or other telephone number You have provided to Us on Your membership application, and at any wireless, cellular, mobile or other telephone number You may furnish to Us or We may obtain for You in the future. We may contact You using any electronic means We choose, which may include but is not limited to, voice messages, text messages and other similar electronic methods of communication. If You have furnished Us with any e-mail address(es), You understand and agree that We may send You e-mail messages regarding Your Account(s) with Us from time to time. If You have or subsequently enter into any separate agreement to receive electronic documentation form, any communications covered by such disclosure and consent shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in that disclosure and consent.

You understand that the nature of electronic communications is such that anyone with access to Your wireless, cellular, mobile or other telephonic device or e-mail may be able to read or listen to such transactional or relationship messages from Us, and You agree that any person or party sending or leaving such messages shall have no liability for any consequences resulting from the interception of such messages by any other party. Without limitation, You also agree that You are responsible to pay all costs that You may incur as a result of any contact method We choose including, but not limited to, charges for telecommunication, wireless and/or internet charges.

GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Michigan, except to the extent that federal law controls.

GENERAL TERMS APPLICABLE TO ALL ACCOUNTS

Member in Good Standing. The Account services described in these Agreements and Disclosures are available to those members in good standing with the Credit Union. We reserve the right to suspend services to a member who is not in good standing, which includes members that have:
- a delinquent loan.
- a primary Share Account balance below the $10.00 minimum.
- an unresolved deposited returned check.
- unpaid and uncollected credit union fees.
- a negative balance on an account.
- caused a financial loss to the Credit Union.
- provided Us an invalid address.

Minimum Balance Requirements. To be a member and maintain Accounts with Us You must purchase one share in the Credit Union. The par value of a share in this Credit Union is $10.00. If the balance in Your primary Share Savings Account drops below one share ($10.00) for a period of six months or more, We may, at Our option, close Your Account.

Insufficient Available Funds Returns. Any share draft or pre-authorized transfer, or transaction made through the use of Your ATM or debit Card, or other electronic means, as is applicable (including any in-person transaction), that is presented to Us for payment on Your Account when Your Account lacks sufficient collected funds to pay any such item may, at Our option, be returned for insufficient available funds or We may honor any such item and charge You a fee for doing so.

Overdraft Balance Calculation. When processing transactions that debit or credit Your Account, We start each Business Day with Your final Account balance from the preceding Business Day. The final balance takes into account all of the debit and credit transactions that were settled that Business Day pursuant to Our Funds Availability Policy, as well as any other debits or credits to Your Account that were finally settled that day, as described above in the "Deposit of Items" and "Collection and Processing of Items" sections of the Account Agreement. This starting balance at the beginning of a Business Day (the preceding Business Day's final balance) is sometimes referred to as Your "actual balance."

As credits and debits to Your Account are received by Us, We add them to and subtract them from Your actual balance. Examples of credits include, but are not limited to, electronic direct deposits, check deposits that have been fully and finally collected, ACH credits that have settled that day, and cash deposits made to one of Our tellers. Examples of debits include, but are not limited to, checks drawn on Your Account that are presented to Us for payment, electronic fund transfer (EFT) debit transactions (such as preauthorized payments and settled EFT debits), memo-posted EFT debits (EFT debits that We have authorized but which have not been settled), and Credit Union fees and charges. The result of this calculation at any given point in time is called Your "available balance."

For the purpose of determining whether an overdraft has occurred, We use Your available balance. First, We add all of the settled credit transactions to the beginning actual balance. Then, We subtract all of the debit transactions that settled that day. We also subtract all of the pending debit transactions. This determines the available balance for overdraft purposes. Each debit transaction that We process when Your Account has a negative available balance is an overdraft, subject to an overdraft charge.

Subject to applicable law, You are responsible for paying any overdraft fees and charges assessed in connection with Our payment of an overdraft, as well as any NSF fees charged to Your Account when We dishonor and return an item for insufficient funds. It is Your responsibility to know Your Account balance, and if You have any questions You should contact a Credit Union representative.

Variable Rate Information. For all Variable Rate Accounts, the dividend/interest rate and APY may change every dividend period based on the determination of the Credit Union's Board of Directors.

Nature of Dividends. Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

Withdrawal of Dividends Prior to Maturity. For certificate Accounts, the Annual Percentage Yield assumes that dividends remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal will reduce earnings.

Additional Transaction Limitations. For all Accounts (except share draft Accounts), during any statement period You may not make more than six withdrawals from or transfers to another Credit Union Account of Yours or to a third party by means of a pre-authorized or automatic transfer or telephonic order or instruction, or by check, draft, debit card, if applicable, or similar order to a third party. If You exceed these limitations, Your Account may be subject to closure by the Credit Union.

For all Accounts, the Credit Union reserves the right to require a member intending to make a withdrawal to give written notice of such intent not less than seven days and up to 60 days before any such withdrawal.

Compounding and Crediting. For all dividend/interest-bearing Accounts, dividends/interest will be earned daily for each day on which Your balance exceeds the minimum daily balance requirement for Your Account. You will not be paid any accrued but uncredited dividends/interest at the time You close Your Account. The dividend/interest period, compounding frequency and the crediting frequency for all Accounts are shown in the following table:

Balance Computation Method. For dividend/interest-bearing Accounts (except certificate Accounts), dividends/interest are calculated by the daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the balance in the Account each day. For certificate Accounts, interest is calculated by the average daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the average daily balance for the average daily balance calculation period. The average daily balance is determined by adding the full amount of the principal in Your Account for each day of the period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the period.

Accrual on Noncash Deposits. For dividend/interest-bearing Accounts, dividends/interest will begin to accrue on the business day You deposit noncash items (e.g. checks) into Your Account.

Fees and Charges. Any fees and charges applicable to Your Account are disclosed on an accompanying pricing document provided in conjunction with these Agreements and Disclosures.
ATM CARD, MASTERCARD DEBIT CARD, TELEVOCe, ONE2GO AND E-CHECK AGREEMENT. This Agreement applies to any electronic fund transfer made to or from Your Account(s) by You or by any user who has access to Your Account with actual, apparent or implied authority for use of Your Account. Electronic fund transfers to and from Your Account can be made through the use of, but may not be limited to the following: (a) Your Card in Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) or at any place that it is honored including those transactions made through the use of the appropriate PIN in conjunction with Your Card; (b) any check which You authorize the payee to process electronically; (c) Our Televoces Audio Response system; and (d) Our One2Go Personal Computer Access Account System. An electronic fund transfer is any transfer of funds which is performed through the use of Your Card, E-Check, Our Televoces Audio Response System, Our One2Go Personal Computer Access System or other electronic device. You understand that Your Card and any PINs and/or Access Codes are issued by Us and are not transferable. Your PIN is confidential and should not be disclosed to anyone. The use of Your Card is subject to the following terms. You agree: (a) to abide by Our Rules and Regulations as amended relating to the use of the Card; (b) that We may follow all instructions given to machines; and (c) not to use Your Card for illegal transactions including, but not limited to, advances made for the purpose of gambling and/or wagering where such practices are in violation of applicable state and/or federal law. Each withdrawal by You, or anyone else to whom You give Your PIN or to whom You allow access to Your Account, will be charged to Your share or share draft Account and will be treated as though it were a withdrawal except that: (1) We may charge withdrawals in any order We determine; and (2) We cannot honor stop payment requests on ATM and POS withdrawals. We may, but are under no obligation to do so, process an Electronic Fund Transfer that exceeds the balance in Your share and/or share draft Account. In the event that any such transfer occurs, You agree to immediately pay Us the overdrawn amount and to the extent permitted by law, any associated fees and charges.

ISSUANCE OF PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS (PINs) AND/OR ACCESS CODES. We will issue to You separate Personal Identification Numbers (PINs) and/or Access Codes to be used in conjunction with ATM Card, MasterCard Debit Card, Televoces and One2Go. Your use of Your PIN or Access Code is Your authorization to Us to withdraw funds from Your share Account or Your share draft Account to cover such transactions.

JOINT ACCOUNTS. If this is a Joint Account, You agree to be jointly and severally liable under the terms of this Agreement. You understand that any Account access device that is requested and approved will be mailed only to the primary Accountholder at the address that We have on file for You. We may refuse to follow any instructions which run counter to this provision.

OTHER AGREEMENT. If electronic funds transfer transactions involve other agreements You have with Us, the terms of those agreements will apply as well.

BUSINESS DAYS. Every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

DELAYED FUNDS AVAILABILITY NOTICE. Subject to Our Delayed Funds Availability Policy, deposits made at One Detroit Credit Union locations may not be posted to Your Account until they are received and verified by Us. All deposited items are removed from machines each business day. We are not responsible for delays in deposit posting due to improper identification on the deposit envelope. See Our Funds Availability Policy Disclosure for Our policy regarding the availability of Your deposits.

TYPES AND LIMITATIONS OF SERVICES

ATM CARD TRANSACTIONS. You may use Your Card in conjunction with Your PIN in any of Our network of ATMs and such other machines or facilities as We may designate, to deposit cash and checks to Your share and share draft Account(s). You may also use Your Card in conjunction with Your PIN in any of Our network of ATMs and such other machines or facilities as We may designate to make the following transactions: (a) withdraw cash from Your share and share draft Account(s); (b) transfer funds between Your loan accounts, share, share draft and line of credit Account(s); and (c) make balance inquiries on Your share and share draft Account(s) with Us. You may also use Your Card in conjunction with Your PIN to purchase goods and services (“POS”) at any business establishment where the Card is accepted. ATM withdrawals may not exceed (share, share draft and line of credit combined) $800.00 per calendar day, subject to the available funds in Your Account. POS transactions may not exceed (share, share draft and line of credit combined) $800.00 per calendar day, subject to the available funds in Your Account. In each case, You may instruct Us to limit withdrawals to as low as $50.00 per day.

MASTERCARD DEBIT CARD TRANSACTIONS. You may use Your Card in conjunction with Your PIN in any of Our network of ATMs and such other machines or facilities as We may designate, to deposit cash and checks to Your share and share draft Account(s). You may also use Your Card in conjunction with Your PIN in any of Our network of ATMs and such other machines or facilities as We may designate to make the following transactions: (a) withdraw cash from Your share and share draft Account(s); (b) transfer funds between Your loan accounts, share, share draft and line of credit Account(s); and (c) make balance inquiries on Your share and share draft Account(s) with Us. You may also use Your Card in conjunction with Your PIN to purchase goods and services (“POS”) at any business establishment where the Card is accepted. ATM withdrawals may not exceed (share, share draft and line of credit combined) $800.00 per calendar day, subject to the available funds in Your Account except to the extent that such amount will be reduced to $400.00 for cards linked to Fresh Start Checking accounts. POS transactions may not exceed (share, share draft and line of credit combined) $3,000.00 per calendar day, subject to the available funds in Your Account except to the extent that such amount will be reduced to $1,500.00 for cards linked to Fresh Start Checking accounts. In all cases, You may instruct Us to limit both ATM and POS withdrawals to as low as $50.00 per day.

TELEVOCe TRANSACTIONS. You may use Our Televoces Audio Response System in conjunction with Your PIN and/or Access Code via a touch tone telephone to make the following types of transactions on designated accounts: (a) Transfer funds between share, share draft, and line of credit Accounts; (b) Make check withdrawals from Your share Accounts; (c) Make payments on Your loans with Us; (d) Obtain information related to Your Accounts; and (e) Make balance, loan and miscellaneous inquiries on Credit Union services that affect Your Account.

The system operates 24 hours every day. If You attempt to use the system and are told that “the system is not available,” please call back later when service is restored.

ONE2GO TRANSACTIONS. You may use Our One2Go System in conjunction with Your PIN and/or Access Code via a personal computer or internet enabled smartphone and/or mobile computing device (e.g. tablet) to make the following types of transactions on designated accounts: (a) Transfer funds between Your designated Accounts; (b) Make payments on Your loans with Us; (c) Obtain information related to Your share and share draft Accounts; and (d) Make balance, loan and miscellaneous inquiries on Credit Union services that affect Your Account.

At the present time, You may also use Our One2Go System to access the online bill payment service in conjunction with Your PIN and/or Access Code via a personal computer for the following services: (a) authorize the Credit Union to issue payments on Your behalf, except to the extent that such payments are for governmental agencies, state and local taxing authorities, court-ordered payment and/or addresses of (b) the United States of America; and (c) check status of payments previously authorized through the online bill payment service. In order to use the online bill payment service for such transactions, You must have a share draft Account with Us. By completing an online bill payment transaction using the online bill payment service, You authorize Us to post any such payments to Your share draft Account. Online bill payment service payments will be made by check or electronic transfer and may take as long as six business days from the date requested to be sent to the payee. The Credit Union cannot guarantee the time any payment will reach any of Your payees and accepts no liability for any service fees or late charges levied against You.

E-CHECK TRANSACTIONS. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from Your checking Account using information from Your check (“E-Check”) to: (a) pay for purchases; or (b) pay bills.

OWNERSHIP OF ACCESS DEVICES. Your Card and/or any other Account access device will remain Our property and any such Card or other Account access device We may issue may be cancelled or its use restricted by Us at any time without notice, except as may be required by applicable law. You agree to surrender any such Card and/or access device and to discontinue its use immediately upon Our request. You will be required to return any Account access device(s) to Us immediately upon the closing of Your Account.

NOTIFICATION OF PRE-AUTHORIZED DEPOSITS. If You have arranged to have direct deposits made to Your Account at least once every 60 days (from Your...
RIGHT TO STOP PRE-AUTHORIZED PAYMENTS. If you want to stop any pre-authorized payments, call Us at the telephone number shown in this Agreement or write Us at the address shown in this Agreement in time for Us to receive Your stop payment request three business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. If You call, You must put Your request in writing and get it to Us within 14 days after You call. To be sure that a third party does not bill You again for the “stopped” payment or to cancel the entire pre-authorized payment arrangement, contact the third party.

To ensure that recurring preauthorized charges established and authorized by You are not interrupted in the event that Your Card or other Access Device is reissued, We may, but are under no obligation to do so, enroll Your account in automatic account information update services that communicate new Card/Access Device information to the service providers with whom You have established preauthorized recurring charges, the purpose of which is to ensure charges You authorize continue without interruption.

NOTICE OF VARYING AMOUNTS. If regular pre-authorized payments may vary in amount, the person You are going to pay will tell You, 10 days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that You set.

OUR LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO STOP PAYMENT. If You order Us to stop one of Your pre-authorized payments three business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and We do not do so, We will be liable for losses or damages, to the extent provided by law.

TRANSACTION SLIPS. You can get a receipt at the time You make any transaction to or from Your Account (except for One2Go, telephonic or mail-in transactions, and certain small-value transactions). When an electronic transfer has been made during any given month, You will receive a monthly statement to reflect all electronic fund transfers to or from Your Account during that statement period. In any case, You will receive a statement at least quarterly.

FEES. We may assess reasonable charges against Your Account for electronic fund transfers. If so, We will specify any charges for these or other types of electronic transactions, including automatic transfers, on an accompanying pricing document. We will explain the charges to You when You open Your Account. You will be provided with a fee schedule and TeleVoice, and One2Go information after Your Account is established. When You use an ATM not owned by Us, You may be charged a fee by the ATM operator, or any network used, and You may be charged a fee for a balance inquiry even if You do not complete a fund transfer.

LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO COMPLETE TRANSACTIONS. If We do not properly complete a transaction to or from Your Account according to this Agreement, We will be liable for Your losses or damages. However, We will not be liable if: (a) Your Account does not contain sufficient available funds to make the transaction through no fault of Ours; (b) the ATM where You are making the transaction does not have enough cash; (c) the terminal was not working properly and You knew about the breakdown when You started the transaction; (d) circumstances beyond Our control prevent the transaction despite reasonable precautions that We have taken; (e) Your Card is retrieved or retained by an ATM; (f) Your Card or PIN has been reported lost or stolen and We have blocked the Account; (g) the money in Your Account is subject to legal process or other claim; (h) there are other lawful exceptions established by Us and You are given proper advance notice of them; and (i) You exceed any limits on Your Account.

LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE. Telephone Us at once at the telephone number shown in this Agreement or write to Us at the address shown in this Agreement if You believe Your Card or PIN have been lost or stolen or if You believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without Your permission using information from Your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping Your possible losses down. You could lose all of the money in Your Account (plus Your maximum overdraft line of credit, if applicable).

If You tell Us within 2 business days after You learn of the loss or theft of Your Card or PIN, You can lose no more than $50.00 if someone uses Your Card or PIN without Your permission. If You fail to tell Us within 2 business days after You learn of the loss or theft of Your Card or PIN and We can prove that We could have stopped someone from using Your Card or PIN without Your permission if You had told Us, then You could lose as much as $500.00. Additionally, if Your periodic statement shows transactions that You did not make, You will tell Us at once. If You fail to tell Us within 60 days after We mail You the periodic statement, You could lose the entire Account balance if We can prove We could have stopped someone from taking Your money if You had given Us notice in time. If a valid reason (such as a long trip or hospital stay) keeps You from giving Us notice, We will extend the time periods.

Exception: You will have no liability for the unauthorized use of Your MasterCard Debit Card as long as You used reasonable care in safeguarding Your Card from loss or theft and, upon becoming aware of such loss or theft, promptly report that loss or theft to Oak Tree Business Systems, Inc. This exception does not apply to a transaction conducted with a Card that is: (a) issued to an entity other than a natural person; (b) issued for a commercial purpose, except to the extent that such exception shall apply to transactions conducted for a small-business program; and (c) issued to a person until such time as that person’s identity is registered by or on behalf of the Credit Union in connection with such issuance, which registration may include customer identification program requirements.

REVERSAL OF TRANSACTION. We will reverse an electronic fund transfer resulting from a point-of-sale transaction at a Participating Merchant (any merchant who has arranged to accept Your Card as a means of payment for goods and services) and recredit Your account for the full amount of the transfer if all of the following occur:

(a) You provide Us notice of having made a good faith attempt to seek redress and make an assurance to Us of the return of the Participating Merchant of related goods in dispute, where returnable goods are involved.

(b) The amount of the transaction is $50.00 or more.

(c) Within four calendar days following the transaction, We receive from You during Our normal business hours, a written or oral request for the reversal.

(d) You verify the reverse order, notice and assurance in writing within 14 calendar days following oral notification, on a form to be provided by Us for that purpose. If written notification is not furnished, We shall reinstate the original debits and credits involved in the transaction to the extent of the available account balance.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS. Telephone Us at the telephone number shown in this Agreement, or write to Us at the address shown in this Agreement as soon as You can, if You think Your statement or receipt is wrong or if You need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from You no later than 60 days after We send You the first statement on which the problem or error appeared.

(1) Tell Us Your name and Account number.

(2) Describe the error or the transfer You are unsure about, and explain as clearly as You can why You believe it is an error or why You need more information.

(3) Tell Us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If You tell Us orally, We may require that You send Us Your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days. If We need more time, however, We may take up to 45 days to investigate Your complaint or question. If We decide to do this, We will credit Your Account within 10 business days for the amount You think is in error, so that You will have the use of the money during the time it takes Us to complete Our investigation. If We ask You to put Your complaint or question in writing and We do not receive it within 10 business days, We may not credit Your Account. We will tell You the results within three business days after completing Our investigation. If We decide that there was no error, We will send You a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that We used in Our investigation. If We have credited Your Account with funds while investigating an error, We will charge Your Account for those funds if We conclude no error has occurred. In this provision, all references to 10 business days will be 20 business days if Your notice of error involves an electronic fund transfer that occurred within 30 days after the first deposit to Your Account was made and all references to 45 business days will be 90 business days if Your notice of error involves an electronic fund transfer that: (a) was not initiated within a state; (b) resulted from a point-of-sale debit card transaction; or (c) if Your notice of error involves an electronic fund transfer that occurred within 30 days after the first deposit to Your Account was made. If We decide that there is no error, We will send You a written explanation within three business days after We finish Our investigation. You may ask for copies of the documents that We used in Our investigation. If We have credited Your Account with funds while investigating an error, We will charge Your Account for those funds if We conclude no error has occurred.

UNAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS. To report a lost or stolen Card, PIN, Access Code or any combination thereof, You will call Us immediately at (800) 754-4128, or write to Us at the address shown in this Agreement. You should also call the telephone number shown in this Agreement or write to the address listed above if

You believe a transfer has been made using the information from Your check without Your permission.

FOREIGN TRANSACTIONS. For transactions initiated in foreign currencies, the exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency (U.S. dollars) will be: (a) a rate selected by MasterCard from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate MasterCard itself receives; or (b) the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. In each instance You will be charged 8/10ths of 1.00% calculated on the final settlement amount for transactions that are initiated in foreign countries, and if Your transaction is also initiated in a foreign currency You will be charged an additional 2/10ths of 1.00% calculated on the final converted settlement amount.

DISCLOSURE OF ACCOUNT INFORMATION. We may disclose information to third parties about Your Account or transfers You make: (1) when it is necessary to complete an electronic transaction; or (2) in order to verify the existence and conditions of Your Account for a third party such as a credit bureau or merchant; or (3) in order to comply with a government agency or court order, or any legal process; or (4) if You give Us written permission.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY DISCLOSURE

THIS DISCLOSURE DESCRIBES YOUR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FUNDS FROM TRANSACTION ACCOUNTS AT ONE DETROIT CREDIT UNION. YOU SHOULD ALSO REFER TO THE SECTION OF THESE AGREEMENTS AND DISCLOSURES THAT DESCRIBES THE DETAILS OF YOUR SPECIFIC ACCOUNT TYPE FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

Your Ability To Withdraw Funds. Our policy is to delay the availability of funds from Your cash and check deposits. During the delay, You may not withdraw the funds in cash and We will not use the funds to pay checks that You have written.

Determining the Availability Of A Deposit. The length of the delay is counted in business days from the day of Your deposit. Every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If You make a deposit before closing on a business day that We are open, We will consider that day to be the day of Your deposit. However, if You make a deposit after closing or on a day We are not open, We will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day We are open.

The length of the delay varies depending on the type of deposit and is explained below.

Same-Day Availability

Funds from electronic direct deposits to Your Account will be available on the day We receive the deposit.

Next-Day Availability

• U.S. Treasury checks that are payable to You.
• Wire transfers.
• Checks drawn on Us.
• Cash.
• State and local government checks that are payable to You.
• Cashier's, certified, and teller's checks that are payable to You.
• Federal Reserve Bank checks, Federal Home Loan Bank checks, and postal money orders, if these items are payable to You.

Other Check Deposits

The first $225.00 from a deposit of other checks will be available on the 1st business day after the day We receive Your deposit. The remaining funds will be available on the 2nd business day after the day We receive Your deposit. For example, if You deposit a local check of $700.00 on a Monday, $225.00 of the deposit is available on Tuesday. The remaining $475.00 is available on Wednesday.

Longer Delays May Apply. Funds You deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

• We believe a check You deposit will not be paid.
• You deposit checks totaling more than $5,525.00 on any one day.
• You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
• You have overdrawn Your account repeatedly in the last six months.
• There is an emergency, such as failure of computer or communications equipment.

We will notify You if We delay Your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and We will tell You when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the 8th business day following the day of Your deposit. In any case, We reserve the right to refuse an item for deposit or encashment.

Special Rules For New Accounts. If You are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days Your Account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits to Your Account will be available on the day We receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,525.00 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the 1st business day after the day of Your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to You. The excess over $5,525.00 will be available on the 9th business day after the day of Your deposit. If Your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of Our employees, the first $5,525.00 will not be available until the 2nd business day after the day of Your deposit. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the 7th business day after the day of Your deposit.

ATM Deposits. If You make an ATM deposit on a business day that We are open, We will consider that day to be the day of Your deposit. However, if You make an ATM deposit on a day that We are not open, We will consider the deposit made on the next business day We are open. For deposits made at Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) owned and operated by the Credit Union, deposits subject to delayed availability will become available for withdrawal on the 2nd business day following the day of deposit. For deposits made at ATMs not owned and operated by the Credit Union, deposits subject to delayed availability will become available for withdrawal on the 5th business day following the day of deposit. All ATMs that We own or operate are identified as Our machines.

Holds on Other Funds. If We cash a check for You that is drawn on another institution, We may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in Your Account. Those funds will be available to You at the time that the funds from the check We cashed for You would have been available if You had deposited it. If We accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another institution, We may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay Your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that You have on deposit in another account with Us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described elsewhere in this policy for the type of check that You deposited.

Location of Check Endorsements. Federal law requires all check endorsements to be in the first 1-1/2 inches of the trailing edge of the back of the check. The trailing edge is opposite the left side of the face of the check, the side of the check just behind Our address. You will be responsible for any costs incurred by Us due to delays in returning checks deposited into Your Account that do not comply with the endorsement standards.

Dividend Payment Policy. See the Account Disclosures section in these Agreements and Disclosures for Our policy on the payment of dividends.
What is a substitute share draft?
To make share draft processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original share drafts with "substitute share drafts." These share drafts are similar in size to original share drafts with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original share draft. The front of a substitute share draft states: "This is a legal copy of Your check. You can use it the same way You would use the original check." You may use a substitute share draft as proof of payment just like the original share draft.

Some or all of the share drafts that You receive back from Us may be substitute share drafts. This notice describes rights You have when You receive substitute share drafts from Us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original share drafts or to electronic debits to Your Account. However, You have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What are my rights regarding substitute share drafts?
In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows You to request a refund for losses You suffer if a substitute share draft is posted to Your Account (for example, if You think that We withdrew the wrong amount from Your Account or that We withdrew money from Your Account more than once for the same share draft). The losses You may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from Your Account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced share draft fees).

The amount of Your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of Your loss or the amount of the substitute share draft, whichever is less. You also are entitled to dividends on the amount of Your refund if Your Account is a dividend-bearing Account. If Your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute share draft, You may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

YOUR ORAL OR WRITTEN REQUEST. WE WILL PROVIDE WIRE TRANSFER SERVICES AS A MEANS TO INITIATE DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS FOR YOU, SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHICH YOU AGREED TO BY SIGNING YOUR APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP WITH US AT THE TIME THAT YOUR ACCOUNT WAS ESTABLISHED.

This Wire Transfer Agreement applies to wire transfers that are not "Remittance Transfers" as defined in the Electronic Fund Transfer Act (15 U.S.C. 1693o-1) and Regulation E, Subpart B (12 CFR 1005.30 et seq.).

We are authorized to charge Your Account for the payment of wire transfer requests. If more than one Account(s) is designated, We may charge any of the designated Accounts unless You give Us specific written directions otherwise.

Your transfer requests may involve the transfer of funds from any of Your Accounts unless You give Us specific written directions otherwise. Your transfer requests may involve the transfer of funds from any of Your Accounts unless You give Us specific written directions otherwise.

How do I make a claim for a refund?
If You believe that You have suffered a loss relating to a substitute share draft that You received and that was posted to Your Account, please contact Us by telephone at the number shown herein, or write to Us at the address shown herein. You must contact Us within 40 calendar days of the date that We mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which You agreed) the substitute share draft in question or the Account statement showing that the substitute share draft was posted to Your Account, whichever is later.

We will extend this time period if You were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances.

WIRE TRANSFER AGREEMENT

THESE ARE THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS WHENEVER YOU REQUEST A WIRE TRANSFER OF FUNDS FROM YOUR ACCOUNT(S) WITH US BASED UPON YOUR ORAL OR WRITTEN REQUEST. WE WILL PROVIDE WIRE TRANSFER SERVICES AS A MEANS TO INITIATE DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS FOR YOU, SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHICH YOU AGREED TO BY SIGNING YOUR APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP WITH US AT THE TIME THAT YOUR ACCOUNT WAS ESTABLISHED.

You will have no right to cancel or amend a payment order to initiate a wire transfer after We receive it. We will make a reasonable effort to act on a cancellation or amendment of a payment order made by You prior to the time that We execute such payment order, but We have no liability if Your cancellation or amendment is ineffective.

You agree to re-execute this Agreement or to execute a new agreement if changes are necessary. Your application for membership designates any Account which may be charged in relation to wire transfer requests. All parties which You have authorized to issue wire transfer requests or to receive telephonic confirmations from Us are identified in Your application for membership. All modifications or additions to Your application for membership must be in writing.

You agree to pay Us the amount of any transfer request which We transmit pursuant to this Agreement when We execute a payment order to carry out Your wire transfer request. You will not make any wire transfer request which would cause You to exceed the available balance in the Account designated to pay the transfer request. If a payment order is executed which creates an overdraft, with or without Our prior consent, You agree to pay Us the overdraft amount and any overdraft fee immediately upon Our demand. We have the right to set off the amount of the overdraft against the balance in any of Your accounts with Us and We may exercise any rights We have under any agreements which grant Us security for the payment of Your liabilities or obligations to Us.

You understand and agree that the payment of a wire transfer request may be made by Us or any other financial institution used to carry out the transfer request on the basis of an identifying or account number which You have provided for a beneficiary, even if the number identifies a person different from Your intended beneficiary. You also understand and agree that We or any other financial institution used to carry out a transfer request, may rely on the identifying number of the intermediary or beneficiary's financial institution which You have provided as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's financial institution, even if the number identifies a financial institution different from the one You intended to identify. We or any other financial institution are not responsible for determining whether any identifying or account numbers You have provided to initiate a wire transfer are accurate. You will be liable to Us for the amount of any transfer request even if payment of the transfer request is made to a person.

different from the named beneficiary based upon the beneficiary's identifying or account number provided by You or payment of the transfer request is made to a financial institution different from the one identified by name based on the identifying number which You have provided to Us.

You agree to examine any statement or confirmation which We send You and to notify Us within 30 days after the mailing date on any statement or confirmation, of any discrepancy or error. If You fail to notify Us of any discrepancy or error within the required time period, You agree that We are not liable to pay dividends or reimburse You for any discrepancy or error in relation to a transfer request described in such statement or confirmation.

You and the Credit Union agree that the following specified security procedures represent a commercially reasonable method of providing security against unauthorized payment orders: (a) Only individuals named in Your application for membership shall issue wire transfer requests to Us; and (b) We reserve the right to telephonically contact any individual named in Your application for membership for the purpose of confirming a transfer request, regardless of amount, although We have no obligation to do so. If We cannot obtain a confirmation satisfactory to Us, then We reserve the right to refuse to honor any wire transfer request.

We have no responsibility to verify the identity of any party identifying themselves as an individual authorized to receive a telephonic confirmation of any wire transfer request, other than to verify that the name given by such party corresponds to a party named in Your application for membership. If, for any reason, We are not satisfied that a wire transfer request was issued by an authorized party or confirmed by an authorized party, We may refuse to execute the transfer request. If We do so, We shall not incur any liability of any nature. You agree to prevent disclosure, other than on a need-to-know basis, of any of the aspects of the security procedures which You have agreed to with Us. You will notify Us immediately if You believe the confidentiality of the security procedures has been compromised and You shall act to prevent the security procedures from being further compromised.

We have no liability of any nature for delays or mistakes, provided We act in good faith and with reasonable care. We are not responsible for delays or mistakes caused by other parties through whom We transmit funds whether such other parties were selected by You or Us. We are not required to make a wire transfer on the day a wire transfer request is received, unless the wire transfer request is received within a reasonable time before any cut-off hour We have established. We will generally use the funds transfer system, but We may use any means and routes that We, in Our sole discretion, consider suitable for the transmission of funds.

You agree that We have no liability and are not responsible for any delay or failure to transfer any amount specified in any wire transfer request because of rules, regulations, or policies of the Federal Reserve Board which limits, in the aggregate, the amount We can transfer from time to time during any business day, provided, however, that We will promptly notify You of any such failure or delay and will effectuate the transfer as soon as is reasonably possible.

We shall have no liability whatsoever for any special, consequential, punitive, or indirect loss or damage suffered by You in connection with services offered by Us which are subject to this Agreement, regardless of whether We know or should have known such damages might be incurred. We have no responsibility for any attorneys' fees that You might incur.

We may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving written or oral notice to You. Unless We terminate this Agreement, the Agreement shall remain in effect until We receive written notice of termination from You and have been afforded a reasonable opportunity to act on Your termination notice. You may not assign this Agreement to any other party.

This Agreement is governed by the provisions of Regulation J, 12 CFR Part 210, Subpart B, including the Appendices, to the extent that any wire transfer request is carried out. Terms which are not defined in this Agreement shall have the same meaning as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code Article 4A. This Agreement is also subject to all applicable Operating Circulars of the Federal Reserve Bank in the district in which We are located and any other applicable provisions of federal or state law. To the extent that Regulation J does not apply to this Agreement, this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state in which We are chartered.

We may amend this Agreement, from time to time, by sending You a copy of any amendment at least 30 days prior to its effective date. This Agreement may also be amended by a writing signed by You and Us. No representation or statement not expressly contained in this Agreement or in any amendment shall be binding upon You or Us.

If any provision of this Agreement is prohibited by applicable law, such prohibition shall apply only to that provision and all other provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

What We do

How does One Detroit Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect Your personal information from unauthorized access and use, We use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does One Detroit Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect Your personal information, for example, when You
- open an account or deposit money
- pay Your bills or apply for a loan
- use Your credit or debit card

We also collect Your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or others.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives You the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes - information about Your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using Your information to market to You
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to You

State laws and individual companies may give You additional rights to limit sharing.

AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENTS AND DISCLOSURES

This Amendment to Agreements and Disclosures ("Amendment") amends the Agreements and Disclosures governing your deposit relationship with the Credit Union (the "Agreement").

Except as otherwise provided in this Amendment, if any provision contained in this Amendment is in conflict with, or inconsistent with, any provision in any of the Agreement, the provision contained in this Amendment shall govern and control.

This Amendment contains important membership information. Please review this Amendment carefully. If you have any questions regarding this Amendment, please contact us at 313.965.8640 or visit any branch.

1. Your Liability for Overdrafts. The sections of the Agreement entitled "Overdraft Protection", "Nonsufficient Funds Returns" and "Overdraft Balance Calculation" are deleted in their entirety and replaced with the following provision:

YOUR LIABILITY FOR OVERDRAFTS: PLEASE REVIEW THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND ANY PROVISION IN THIS "YOUR LIABILITY FOR OVERDRAFTS" SECTION, OR IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT US AT 313.965.8640, OR VISIT ANY BRANCH.

A. GENERAL.

1. What Does it Mean to Overdraw Your Account? "Overdrawing" your account means that there are not sufficient available funds (as described in Section B below) in your account to pay for a transaction, resulting in a negative or "overdrawn" balance. Some transactions that can result in an overdraft in your account include, but are not limited to:

   - the payment of checks, electronic fund transfers, telephone-initiated transactions, preauthorized payments under our Bill Payment Service, debit card transactions, or other withdrawal requests authorized by you;
   - the return (unpaid) of items deposited by you;
   - the assessment of service charges by us; or
   - the deposit of items that are treated as not yet “available” according to our Funds Availability Policy.

2. What Happens if the Credit Union Refuses to Pay the Item? If you overdraw your account, we may return the item unpaid, commonly known as a return for “non-sufficient funds” or "NSF”. It is important to understand that the Credit Union has no control over how many times an intended payee will resubmit an item to us for payment. When we return an item unpaid, we will assess you an NSF Fee each time the item is presented to us for payment. There is no limit on the number of NSF Fees we may assess against your account. NSF items are described in more detail in Section D.

3. What Happens if the Credit Union Pays the Item? If you overdraw your account and we pay the item, we may do so in one of two ways:

   - through standard overdraft practices that come with your account, which we call “Courtesy Pay”; or
   - through an overdraft protection plan, which we call "Overdraft Transfer Service"

You can elect to decline either of these services at any time, which may result in your transactions being declined for non-sufficient funds if the available balance in your account is insufficient to pay for your transaction.

The Credit Union also offers an overdraft line of credit for qualifying members. This section describes only our Courtesy Pay and Overdraft Transfer Services. If you have questions regarding applying for an overdraft line of credit, please contact the Credit Union for additional information.
4. Your Obligation to Keep Records of Your Transactions. While we provide Courtesy Pay and the Overdraft Transfer Service for your convenience and as a way to help you avoid overdrafts, NSF transactions, and associated fees, you are responsible for keeping track of the funds in your account that are available for you to use before you write a check, preauthorize a payment under our Bill Payment service, authorize an ACH transaction, make a cash withdrawal at an ATM, or use your debit card for a transaction. Among other things, you should keep a running balance that reflects all of your transactions. It is imperative that you keep track of the transactions you may have authorized (such as outstanding checks or automatic bill payments), as your available balance (discussed in more detail below) may not reflect these transactions until they are paid from your account.

B. YOUR AVAILABLE BALANCE.

1. Actual Balance Versus Available Balance. Your checking account has two kinds of balances: the “actual” balance and the “available” balance. Both can be checked when you review your account online, at a Credit Union-owned ATM, by phone, or at a branch. It is important to understand how these two balances work so that you know how much money is available to you in your account at any given time. This section explains actual and available balances and how they work.

2. Your “Actual Balance”. Your “actual” balance is the amount of money that is actually in your account at any given time, but not all funds included in the actual balance are considered “available” for transactions on your account. The actual balance is also sometimes referred to as your “ledger balance”. Your actual balance reflects transactions that have posted to your account, but it does not reflect transactions that have been authorized and are pending or deposits that may be on hold. While the term “actual” may sound as though the number you see is an up-to-date indication of what is in your account that you can spend, that is not always the case because any purchases, holds, fees, other charges, or deposits made on your account that have not yet posted will not appear in your actual balance. For example:

- assume you have a $50 actual balance, but you just wrote a check for $40, then your actual balance is $50 but it does not reflect the pending check transaction. Though your actual balance is $50, you have already spent $40.

3. Your “Available Balance”. Your available balance is the amount of money in your account that is available to you to use without incurring a fee. The available balance takes into account factors such as holds placed on deposits and pending transactions, like pending debit card purchases, that the Credit Union has authorized, but that have not yet posted or settled to your account. For example:

- assume you have an actual balance of $50. If you were to use your debit card at a restaurant to buy lunch for $20, then that merchant could ask us to pre-authorize the payment in that amount (or even a different amount). If the merchant requests preauthorization in the amount of $20, we will place a “hold” on your account for $20 (referred to as an “authorization hold”). Your actual balance will still be $50 because this transaction has not yet posted, but your available balance will be $30 because of the restaurant's $20 preauthorization request. When the merchant submits its bill for payment (which could be days later and for a different amount than the amount of the authorization hold), we will release the authorization hold, post the transaction to your account, and your actual balance will be reduced by the amount of the posted transaction.

4. Your Available Balance and Non-Debit Card Transactions. For electronic funds transfers (ACH), checks, bill payments, and any other non-debit card transactions, we use your available balance at the time a transaction posts to determine whether your account is overdrawn and whether a fee will be assessed. For information on your available balance works with respect to debit card transactions, please see Section C.

C. AUTHORIZATION HOLDS FOR DEBIT CARD TRANSACTIONS.

1. What is an Authorization Hold? When you use your debit card to pay for goods or services, the merchant may seek preauthorization from us for the transaction. When we preauthorize the transaction, we commit to make the requested funds available when the transaction finally posts and as such, we generally place a temporary hold against some or all of the funds in the account linked to your debit card, based on the amount of the preauthorization request from the merchant. We refer to this temporary hold as an “authorization hold,” and the amount of the authorization hold will be subtracted from your available balance as authorization requests are received by us throughout each day.

2. How Does an Authorization Hold Affect Your Available Balance? Until the transaction finally settles or we otherwise remove the hold (for example, we may remove the hold because it exceeds the time permitted or we determine that it is unlikely to be processed), the funds subject to the hold will not be available to you for other purposes.
At some point after you sign for the transaction, it is processed by the merchant and submitted to us for payment. This can happen hours or sometimes days after you signed for it, depending on the merchant and its processing company. We have no control over when a merchant may present an item for payment. Merchant payment requests are received in real time throughout the day and are posted to your account as they are received.

3. The Amount of an Authorization Hold May Differ From the Amount of the Actual Transaction. The amount of an authorization hold may differ from the actual transaction amount because the actual transaction amount may not yet be known to the merchant when the authorization request is submitted. For example, this can happen in connection with transactions where your debit card is authorized before your actual transaction amount is known, such as at a restaurant (where you may choose to add a tip to the transaction amount) or a gas station. For these types of transactions, there may be no authorization hold, or the amount of the authorization hold may be different from the transaction amount. In some other cases we may not receive an authorization request from the merchant, and there will be no authorization hold reflected in your available balance. We cannot control how much a merchant asks us to authorize, or when a merchant submits a transaction for payment.

4. Length of an Authorization Hold. We are permitted to place an authorization hold on your account for up to three (3) business days (or for up to thirty (30) business days for certain types of debit card transactions) from the time of the authorization or until the transaction is paid from your account. However, if the transaction is not submitted for payment, we will release the authorization hold, which will increase your available balance until the transaction is submitted for payment by the merchant and finally posted to your account. If this happens, we must honor the prior authorization and will pay the transaction from your account.

In certain instances, when the amount of the authorization hold is either more or less than the amount of the actual transaction, we may maintain the authorization hold even after the purchase amount is actually paid from your account, which will decrease your available balance. However, in these instances, we will not maintain an authorization hold for longer than three (3) business days (or for up thirty (30) business days for certain transactions).

5. Your Available Balance and Debit Card Transactions. Everyday debit card transactions are processed against your account at two different times: first, when the transaction is authorized, and again when the transaction actually settles to your account, usually days later. This delay between the time a particular transaction is authorized and when it actually settles to your account is solely within the control of the merchant and its processor. The Credit Union has no control with respect to the time period that elapses between the time a merchant seeks authorization and finally submits the transaction for settlement.

For debit card transactions, we use your available balance at the time a transaction is authorized and again when the transaction settles to your account to determine if each specific transaction will overdraw your account and whether a fee will be assessed. It is important to remember that your available balance may not reflect all of your transactions.

When the Credit Union authorizes an everyday debit transaction, the amount of the transaction is subject to a preauthorization hold. This means that the amount of the transaction is subtracted from your actual balance. It is important to understand that even if you have sufficient available funds in your account at the time the transaction is authorized, it is possible that the settlement of the transaction may result in an overdraft to your account, and the incurring of a fee. The two most common scenarios are as follows:

- Example 1: Purchase transactions where the final amount is initially unknown. The most common examples of a purchase transaction where the final amount is initially unknown are gas station purchases, restaurant charges, hotel and car reservations. In such cases the transaction will be communicated to the Credit Union for authorization in one amount, but when the transaction actually settles your Account it does so for a greater amount. For example, if you use your debit card to pay at the pump for a gasoline purchase, you typically must utilize your debit card before operating the pump. The Credit Union may receive an authorization request in the amount of $15.00. At the time of the authorization request, the available balance in your account is $30.00, so the Credit Union approves the authorization request, and the available balance in your account is reduced to $15.00. You proceed with the transaction, and purchase gasoline totaling $40.00. When that transaction actually settles to your Account in the amount of $40.00 as opposed to the $15.00 that was authorized, the available balance in your Account is not sufficient to cover the settlement of the preauthorized transaction. Accordingly, the Credit Union’s payment of the preauthorized transaction results in an overdraft, and you will incur a fee (assuming you have opted into the Credit Union’s payment of overdrafts for everyday debit transactions).
Example 2: Purchase transactions where intervening items paid between authorization and settlement result in the overdrafting of your Account. Assume the same gas station scenario as described in Example 1, except that you purchase gasoline totaling just $15.00, so the authorized amount of the transaction is the same as the settlement amount of the transaction. However, between the day the transaction was authorized and the day the transaction settles to your account, a check you wrote in the amount of $35.00 is presented for payment. The available balance in your account at the time of presentment is $15.00, but the Credit Union pays the item in accordance with its Courtesy Pay service, resulting in an overdraft. When the $15.00 gas station transaction actually settles to your account, the available balance in your account is not sufficient to cover the settlement of the preauthorized transaction, even though the settlement amount of the transaction is the same as the preauthorized amount of the transaction. Accordingly, the Credit Union’s payment of the preauthorized transaction results in an additional overdraft, and you will incur a fee (assuming you have opted into the Credit Union’s payment of overdrafts for everyday debit transactions).

For debit card transactions involving merchant authorization holds, we look at the available balance at the time a transaction is authorized and again at settlement to determine whether the transaction will result in an overdraft and a fee. If your available balance is insufficient to pay the preauthorization amount requested by a merchant, and you have not opted into Courtesy Pay for payment of everyday debit transactions, we will decline the request. If your available balance is sufficient to cover a merchant’s authorization request, the authorization request will be approved and an authorization hold will be placed on your account in the amount of the merchant’s authorization request.

If your available balance is insufficient to cover a merchant’s authorization request, and you have opted in to Courtesy Pay for everyday debit transactions, we may choose to approve the authorization request. In the instance where your available balance was insufficient to cover a merchant’s authorization request at the time of authorization without causing the account to have a negative balance, and we choose to authorize the transaction using Courtesy Pay, we will charge a Courtesy Pay Fee on that transaction when it posts, regardless of the available balance in the account at the time of posting.

Note that transactions authorized with a merchant as recurring debit card transactions may be covered by Courtesy Pay regardless of whether you have opted into Courtesy Pay for the payment of everyday debit transactions.

D. PAYMENT OF OVERDRAFTS.

1. The Credit Union Has No Obligation to Pay Your Overdrafts. We are not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient available funds. If we pay a transaction that overdraws your account, we are not obligated to continue paying such transactions in the future. We may pay all, some, or none of your overdrafts, without notice to you. You are liable to us to repay any overdrafts on your account whether you created them or not. If you do not pay us, and we take collection action against you, you agree to pay for any costs of collection. We may close, without notice, any account with excessive overdraft activity, and report the account to a consumer reporting agency.

2. Fees Associated with Overdrawing Your Account – Courtesy Pay Fees. We assess a fee each time an item is presented for payment that we either pay, resulting in an overdraft, or which we decline pay because payment of the item would result in an overdraft had we paid it. If we pay an item in accordance with Courtesy Pay, we will charge you a Courtesy Pay Fee. There is no limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrafting your account.

3. Fees Associated with Overdrawing Your Account – Overdraft Transfer Service. There are fees associated with using our Overdraft Transfer Service. These fees may be less expensive than Courtesy Pay Fees or NSF Fees. If we pay an item in accordance with our Overdraft Transfer Service, we will charge you an Overdraft Transfer Fee. Note there are circumstances wherein you could be charged both an Overdraft Transfer Fee and a Courtesy Pay Fee if both services are utilized to pay an item. These circumstances are discussed in greater detail in Section F. There is no limit to the total fees we can charge you for overdrafting your account.

4. Fees Associated with Overdrawing Your Account – NSF Fees. If we do not pay an item, we will return the item and charge you a NSF Fee each time an item is presented for payment and we return it unpaid due to an insufficient available balance. We have no control over the number of times an intended payee may resubmit the same item to us for payment. There is no limit on the total fees we can charge you for overdrafting your account.

5. Fee Schedule. Please refer to the Fee Schedule for a current listing of all fees associated with overdrawing your account.
6. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU MAY STILL OVERDRAW YOUR ACCOUNT EVEN THOUGH THE AVAILABLE BALANCE APPEARS TO SHOW THERE ARE SUFFICIENT AVAILABLE FUNDS TO COVER A TRANSACTION THAT YOU WANT TO MAKE. This is because your available balance may not reflect all of the outstanding checks, automatic bill payments that you have authorized, or other outstanding transactions that have not yet been paid from your account. For example, you may have written a check that is still outstanding because it has not been submitted for payment by the payee. That check will not be reflected in your available balance until it is presented to us and paid from your account.

In addition, your available balance may not reflect all of your debit card transactions. We have no control over when a merchant submits an item for payment. For example, if a merchant obtains our prior authorization but does not submit an everyday debit card transaction for payment within three (3) business days of authorization (or for up to thirty (30) business days for certain types of debit card transactions including, but not limited to, car rental transactions and international transactions), we are required to release the authorization hold on the transaction. Your available balance will not reflect this transaction once the hold has been released. Please refer to the section entitled “Authorization Holds for Debit Card Transactions” below for information about how authorization holds affect your available balance.

Finally, your available balance may not reflect the most recent deposits to your account. Please refer to the Funds Availability Disclosure for information regarding the availability of your deposits for withdrawal.

E. HOW TRANSACTIONS ARE POSTED TO YOUR ACCOUNT.

There are basically two types of transactions in your account: credits or deposits of money into your account, and debits or payments out of your account. It is important to understand how each is applied to your account so that you know how much money is available to you at any given time. This section explains generally how and when we post transactions to your account.

When processing items drawn on your account, our policy is to pay them as we receive them. We commonly receive items to be processed against your account(s) multiple times per day in what are referred to as presentment files. Each presentment file received commonly contains a large amount of a specific type of item (checks, ACH transactions, or ATM/POS transactions). It is common for each of these presentment files to contain multiple items to be processed against your particular account. When multiple items are received at the same time, the items will be paid as follows:

- Checks are paid in the order received;
- ACH items in each presentment file post credits first in the order presented, then debits in the order presented (we typically receive up to four ACH presentment files per day)
- ATM/POS items are paid in the order they are presented.
- Transactions performed in person, such as withdrawals or checks cashed at one of our locations or a shared branch, are generally paid at the time they are performed.

The order in which items are paid is important if your account does not contain sufficient available funds to pay all of the items that are presented. If an item is presented for payment and your available balance is insufficient to pay it, we may, at our discretion, automatically transfer available funds from your designated account pursuant to the Overdraft Transfer Service, pay the item pursuant to Courtesy Pay, or return the item (NSF).

Please understand that the above information is only a general description of how certain types of transactions are posted. These practices may change, and the Credit Union specifically reserves the right to pay items in any order, as permitted by law.

F. OVERDRAFT PROTECTION PLAN – OVERDRAFT TRANSFER SERVICE.

1. Overdraft Transfer Service. “Overdraft Transfer Service” is a mandatory feature of your checking account whereby funds from your savings account are used for overdraft protection. We will look first to this service for overdraft protection before applying our discretionary Courtesy Pay when your account is overdrawn. The Overdraft Transfer Service may save you money on the total fees you pay us for overdraft protection.

With this service, we will make transfers of available funds automatically from your savings account, plus the overdraft transfer fees, to cover overdrafts in your checking account. Each transfer counts as one of the six (6) limited transactions you are allowed each month from your savings. Overdrafts paid pursuant to the Overdraft Transfer Service are subject to a per-item Overdraft Transfer Fee as set forth in the Fee Schedule.

If there are insufficient available funds in your checking account to pay an item, and there are also insufficient available funds in your savings account to utilize Overdraft Transfer Service, and you are not eligible for Courtesy Pay, your item will not be paid unless it was a previously authorized everyday debit card transaction. The item(s) will be returned, and an NSF fee will be charged, each time an item is presented for payment and returned unpaid due to an insufficient available balance. It is important to remember that we have no control over how many times an intended payee may present the same item for payment. Multiple presentments of the same item will result in multiple fees. Transfers will appear on your periodic statements for each applicable account.

2. Limits on Overdraft Transfer Service. We will not transfer more than the available account balance in your savings account if the amount of the overdraft and related fee(s) exceed the available amount. If the available balance in the savings account is not enough to pay the full amount of the transaction(s) you have initiated on any day plus the Overdraft Transfer Fee(s), we will transfer up to the available balance to pay one or more transactions, plus the applicable fee for each item. Any transactions that are not paid by the transfer will either be paid through our Courtesy Pay Service or returned, and Overdraft Transfer Fees, Courtesy Pay Fees, and/or NSF Fees, as applicable, will be assessed.

The following example illustrates how this works using both Overdraft Transfer Service and Courtesy Pay:

Assume your actual and available balances in your checking account are both $50, and your available balance in your savings account is $10. You write a check for $80. When the check is presented for payment, because you don’t have $80 available in your checking account or regular savings account, the item cannot be fully paid using the Overdraft Transfer Service from your savings account. However, if you are eligible for Courtesy Pay, we may elect to transfer the $10 in your savings account and pay the remaining portion of the item using Courtesy Pay. In such case, you will be assessed both an Overdraft Transfer Fee and a Courtesy Pay Fee.

However, because Courtesy Pay is a discretionary service, we may instead elect to decline to pay the transaction. If we decline to pay the transaction, we will not transfer any funds from your savings account, we will decline the transaction, and we will assess you an NSF Fee each time the item is presented for payment. It is important to remember that we have no control over how many times an intended payee may present the same item for payment. Multiple presentments of the same item will result in multiple fees.

3. We May Return Items Unpaid. We are not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient available funds. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, then we decline or return the transaction or item unpaid and charge a related NSF Fee as stated in our Fee Schedule. You are responsible for ensuring that your account includes sufficient available funds to pay the transactions you initiate or authorize when they are processed for payment from your account, and you also acknowledge that the timing of when merchants or payees submit transactions to us for payment may vary.

If your account does not have sufficient available funds when a transaction or item is presented to us for payment and, as a result, returned unpaid, the merchant or payee of your transaction or item may choose to resubmit the same transaction, and may do so multiple times. In the event a transaction or item is resubmitted for payment at a time when your account lacks sufficient available funds to pay it and we decline it, we will charge a related NSF Fee each time that same transaction is returned unpaid.

4. Termination of Overdraft Transfer Service. We may terminate the Overdraft Transfer Service at any time with or without notice to you.

G. COURTESY PAY OVERDRAFT SERVICE

1. Courtesy Pay. In accordance with our commitment to provide valued service and benefits, we may, if you qualify, at our discretion, pay overdrafts that would cause your eligible checking account to have a negative balance up to the amount of your limit, which is determined by us in our sole and absolute discretion. Courtesy Pay is different than the Overdraft Transfer Service. Courtesy Pay is a backup to the Overdraft Transfer Service and will only be activated if funds are not available from the Overdraft Transfer Service.
2. What Overdraft Transactions are Covered? Courtesy Pay is available for the payment of checks, preauthorized payments under our Bill Payment Service, ACH drafts, and recurring debit transactions. Courtesy Pay is also available for everyday debit card transactions, if you opt-in, as described in the next section below.

3. Optional Overdraft Transactions. The following types of transactions require you to “opt in” (in other words, you must provide us with your affirmative consent) if you would like to include them in Courtesy Pay. Choosing not to opt in may result in these transactions being declined:

   - ATM transactions
   - Everyday Debit Card transactions

   We do not require you to authorize Courtesy Pay for your ATM and everyday debit card transactions as a condition of us providing Courtesy Pay to you for your checks, ACH transactions or other transactions. If you want the Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts for ATM and everyday debit card transactions through Courtesy Pay, you must provide us with your consent by: (1) calling us at 313.965.8640; (2) visiting any branch and speaking with a Representative; or (3) mailing notice of your decision to opt in to Courtesy Pay for ATM and everyday debit card transactions to One Detroit Credit Union, 630 Howard Street, Detroit, MI 48232.

4. Eligibility for Courtesy Pay. Courtesy Pay is not a credit product. It is a feature that is automatically included with eligible checking accounts (unless you decline Courtesy Pay entirely as described below or information we get from a consumer reporting agency does not meet Credit Union standards). Eligibility is at the sole discretion of the Credit Union and is based on you managing your checking account in a responsible manner. Courtesy Pay may be available for checking accounts for which the primary checking account owner is 18 years of age or older. We reserve the right to limit Courtesy Pay to one (1) account per household or member. We may suspend or permanently revoke Courtesy Pay from your checking account, in our sole and absolute discretion, based on any one or more of the following criteria:

   - You are not making regular direct deposits into your checking account;
   - You do not bring your checking account to a positive balance for at least one full business day within a thirty (30) day period;
   - Your membership is not in good standing;
   - You are more than thirty (30) days past due or are in default in any other respect on any loan or other obligation to us;
   - You have an outstanding balance due on an overdraft repayment plan;
   - Your primary savings account does not have a positive balance;
   - Your checking account is subject to any legal or administrative orders or levies;
   - You have insufficient credit or negative credit history;
   - You are a party to a bankruptcy proceeding;
   - Any or all of your account(s) with us are being reviewed for improper activity or transactions;
   - Your checking account is classified as inactive;
   - You use the Service to pay items written to check cashing agencies;
   - You have an unresolved prior loss with us; or
   - We believe you are not managing your checking account in a responsible manner which may harm you or us.

5. Courtesy Pay is a Discretionary Privilege. Any payment made by us under Courtesy Pay will be made on a case-by-case basis, in our sole and absolute discretion. Courtesy Pay does not constitute an actual or implied agreement between you and the Credit Union, nor does it constitute an actual or implied obligation of the Credit Union.
Courtesy Pay is a privilege that the Credit Union provides from time to time and which may be withdrawn or withheld by the Credit Union at any time, without prior notice, reason or cause.

6. Notification. If you qualify for Courtesy Pay, we will notify you that Courtesy Pay has been added to your account. However, we may refuse to pay an overdraft at any time, even though we may have previously paid overdrafts. We have no obligation to notify you before we pay or return any item. It is important to remember that Courtesy Pay is a purely discretionary benefit offered by the Credit Union. If at any time we determine that your account is no longer eligible for Courtesy Pay for any reason, we can discontinue it immediately without notice to you.

7. How Courtesy Pay is Administered. If you are eligible for the Service, we will generally pay your overdraft items up to a maximum amount established by the Credit Union in its sole and absolute discretion, including fees. We are not required to notify you of any nonsufficient funds checks, ACH items, or other transactions that may have been paid or returned. We may refuse to pay any overdrafts without first notifying you even though your account is in good standing and even if we have paid previous overdrafts.

8. When is the overdraft payment due? The total of the overdraft (negative) balance in your checking account, including any and all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand, and you are required to immediately deposit sufficient funds to cover the overdraft paid by us and pay the related fees.

9. Courtesy Pay Fees. A Courtesy Pay Fee will be charged to your checking account, in accordance with our Fee Schedule, for each overdraft that is authorized and paid through the Service. This means that more than one Courtesy Pay Fee may be assessed against your checking account per day depending upon the number of overdrafts authorized and paid through Courtesy Pay. You understand that your Courtesy Pay Limit will be reduced by the amount of each overdraft paid by us through Courtesy Pay and the amount of the related Courtesy Pay Fee imposed until such amounts are repaid by you as set forth herein at which time we may replenish your Courtesy Pay Limit by the amount of the repayment. If we choose not to pay the item/transaction under Courtesy Pay, you are subject to a Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) Fee in accordance with our Fee Schedule for each such item each time it is presented for payment and returned unpaid due to an insufficient available balance. Your periodic statement will itemize Courtesy Pay Fees and NSF Fees for each cycle, as well as the year-to-date total of fees.

10. Transfers to Cover Overdrafts. You understand and agree that we have the right to transfer available funds to your checking account from any of your other account(s) with us (excluding IRAs and certificate accounts), including account(s) upon which you are a joint owner, in an amount equal to the overdraft and related fees.

11. Right of Setoff. In addition to any other rights that we may have, you agree that any deposits, future deposits, or other credits to any account in which you may now or in the future may have an interest are subject to our right of setoff for any liabilities, obligations or other amounts owed to us by you (e.g. overdrafts and any related fees and charges) and such is applicable irrespective of any contribution to the account or source of funds in the account. Moreover, unless you decline Courtesy Pay (see below), you consent and expressly agree that the application of setoff of funds in any account includes the setoff of government benefits (such as Social Security and other public benefit funds) deposited to the account from which the overdraft or related fees are paid to the maximum extent permitted by applicable state and federal law. Each person who causes an overdraft, which is paid by us, agrees to be individually and jointly obligated to repay the unpaid negative balance in accordance with the terms and conditions of Courtesy Pay.

12. Default. You will be in default under the terms of Courtesy Pay if you fail to live up to any of the terms and conditions set forth herein or you are in default on any loan obligation with us and/or a negative balance exists in any other deposit account with us on which you are an owner. If you are in default, in addition to any other rights we may have, we may temporarily suspend overdraft privileges, terminate Courtesy Pay, or close your checking account and demand immediate payment of the entire unpaid negative balance. You also agree to pay any collection costs, attorneys’ fees and court costs that we may incur as a result of your default.

13. Termination; Suspension. We may terminate or suspend Courtesy Pay at any time without prior notice. In no event will any termination relieve you of your obligation to repay any negative account balance, overdraft fees, collection costs and attorneys’ fees, if any. We can delay enforcing any of our rights without losing them.

14. Your Right to Decline Courtesy Pay. Any owner of the checking account may decline the service. If you prefer not to have the Service, visit us in a branch, contact us at 313.965.8640, or write to us at One Detroit Credit Union, 630 Howard Street, Detroit, MI 48232, and include your name, member number and a statement that you are declining the Credit Union’s Courtesy Pay and we will remove it from your checking account. If you decline Courtesy Pay, you will still be charged an NSF Fee for each item returned each time an item is presented for payment and returned unpaid due to an insufficient available balance.
15. Overdraft Protection Plans. As discussed in more detail above, we have the Overdraft Transfer Service which links your checking account to a savings account, as well as other overdraft sources and may be less expensive than Courtesy Pay. To learn more, please ask us about these plans.

THE BEST WAY TO KNOW HOW MUCH MONEY YOU HAVE AND AVOID PAYING OVERDRAFT FEES IS TO RECORD AND TRACK ALL OF YOUR TRANSACTIONS CLOSELY. PLEASE REVIEW THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT US AT 313.965.8640 OR VISIT ANY BRANCH.

2. ARBITRATION. The section of the Agreement entitled “Arbitration” is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following provision.

BINDING ARBITRATION AND CLASS ACTION WAIVER - RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES BY ARBITRATION: THIS SECTION CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR ACCOUNTS AND ALL RELATED SERVICES. IT PROVIDES THAT EITHER YOU OR WE CAN REQUIRE THAT ANY DISPUTES BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL AND THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION OR SIMILAR PROCEEDING. IN ARBITRATION, THE DISPUTE IS SUBMITTED TO A NEUTRAL PARTY, AN ARBITRATOR, INSTEAD OF A JUDGE OR JURY. ARBITRATION PROCEDURES MAY BE MORE LIMITED THAN RULES APPLICABLE IN COURT.

Agreement to Arbitrate Disputes. Either you or we may elect, without the other’s consent, to require that any dispute between us concerning your membership, your deposit accounts (“Accounts”) and the services related to your membership and Accounts, including but not limited to all disputes that you may raise against us, must be resolved by binding arbitration, except for those disputes specifically excluded below.

No Class Action or Joinder of Parties. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU AND WE AGREE THAT NO CLASS ACTION, CLASS-WIDE ARBITRATION, PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION, OR OTHER PROCEEDING WHERE SOMEONE ACTS IN A REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY, MAY BE PURSUED IN ANY ARBITRATION OR IN ANY COURT PROCEEDING, REGARDLESS OF WHEN THE CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION AROSE OR ACCRUED, OR WHEN THE ALLEGATIONS OR FACTS UNDERLYING THE CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION OCCURRED. Unless mutually agreed to by you and us, claims of two or more persons may not be joined, consolidated, or otherwise brought together in the same arbitration (unless those persons are joint account holders or beneficiaries on your account and/or related accounts, or parties to a single transaction or related transaction), whether or not the claim may have been assigned.

Disputes Covered by Arbitration. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT IN ARBITRATION THERE WILL BE NO RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL. Any claim or dispute relating to or arising out of your Accounts or our relationship will be subject to arbitration, regardless of whether that dispute arose before or after your receipt of this notice. Disputes include claims made as part of a class action, private attorney general or other representative action, it being expressly understood and agreed to that the arbitration of such claims must proceed on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis and the arbitrator may award relief only on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis. Disputes also include claims relating to the enforceability or interpretation of any of these arbitration provisions. Any questions about whether disputes are subject to arbitration shall be resolved by interpreting this arbitration provision in the broadest way the law will allow it to be enforced.

All disputes are subject to arbitration, no matter what legal theory they are based on, or what remedy (damages, or injunctive or declaratory relief) they seek. Disputes include any unresolved claims concerning any services relating to your Accounts. Disputes include not only claims made directly by you, but also made by anyone connected with you or claiming through you, such as a joint account holder, account beneficiary, employee, representative, agent, predecessor or successor, heir, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy. Disputes include not only claims that relate directly to the Credit Union, but also its affiliates, successors, assigns, officers, directors, employees, and agents, and claims for which we may be directly or indirectly liable, even if we are not properly named at the time the claim is made. Disputes include claims based on any theory of law, contract, statute, regulation, tort (including fraud or any intentional tort), or any other legal or equitable ground, and include claims asserted as counterclaims, cross-claims, third-party claims, interpleaders or otherwise; and claims made independently or with other claims. If party initiates a proceeding in court regarding a claim or dispute which is included under this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision, the other party may elect to proceed in arbitration pursuant to this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision.

Disputes Excluded from Arbitration. Disputes filed by you or by us individually in a small claims court are not subject to arbitration, so long as the disputes remain in such court and advance only an individual (non-class, non-representative) claim for relief. However, if a matter in small claims court is removed, transferred, or appealed to a non-small claims court, that claim shall be subject to this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision. Our Claims or disputes against you arising from your status as a borrower under any loan agreement with the Credit Union or to collect any funds you may owe us are also excluded from this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision.

Commencing an Arbitration. The arbitration must be filed with one of the following neutral arbitration forums and follow its rules and procedures for initiating and pursuing an arbitration: American Arbitration Association or JAMS. If you initiate the arbitration, you must notify us in writing at:

One Detroit Credit Union
Attention: Compliance
630 Howard Street
Detroit, MI 48232

If we initiate the arbitration, we will notify you in writing at your last known address on file. You may obtain a copy of the arbitration rules for these forums, as well as additional information about initiating an arbitration by contacting these arbitration forums:

American Arbitration Association
1-800-778-7879 (toll-free)
www.adr.org

JAMS
1-800-352-5267 (toll-free)
www.jamsadr.com

The arbitration shall be conducted in the same city as the U.S. District Court closest to your home address, unless the parties agree to a different location in writing.

Administration of Arbitration. The arbitration shall be decided by a single, neutral arbitrator. The arbitrator will be either a lawyer with at least ten years of experience or a retired or former judge selected in accordance with the rules of the arbitration forum. The arbitrator shall follow procedures and rules of the arbitration forum in effect on the date the arbitration is filed unless those rules and procedures are inconsistent with this arbitration provision, in which case this arbitration provision will prevail. Those provisions and rules may limit discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect customer account information and other confidential information if requested to do so by you or by us. The arbitrator shall decide the dispute in accordance with applicable substantive law consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act and applicable statutes of limitations, will honor claims of privilege recognized at law, and will be empowered to award any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law. The arbitrator will not have the power to award relief to, or against, any person who is not a party to the arbitration. An award in arbitration shall determine the rights and obligations between the named parties only, and only in respect of the claims in arbitration, and shall not have any bearing on the rights and obligations of any other person, or on the resolution of any other dispute. You or we may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The decision rendered by the arbitrator shall be in writing. At your or our request, the Arbitrator shall issue a written, reasoned decision following applicable law and relief granted must be relief that could be granted by the court under applicable law. Judgment on the arbitration award may be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Costs. The party initiating the arbitration shall pay the initial filing fee. If you file the arbitration and an award is rendered in your favor, we will reimburse you for your filing fee. If there is a hearing, We will pay the fees and costs of the arbitration for the first day of that hearing. All other fees and costs will be allocated in accordance with the rules of the arbitration forum. However, we will advance or reimburse filing and other fees if the arbitrator rules that you cannot afford to pay them or finds other good cause for requiring Us to do so, or if you ask us in writing and we determine there is good reason for doing so. Each party shall bear the expense of their respective attorneys, experts, and witnesses and other expenses, regardless of who prevails, but a party may recover any or all costs and expenses from another party if the arbitrator, applying applicable law, so determines.

Right to Resort to Provisional Remedies Preserved. Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit or constrain our right to resort to self-help remedies, such as the right of set-off or the right to restrain funds in an account, to interplead funds in the event of a dispute, to exercise any security interest or lien we may hold in property, or to comply with legal process, or to obtain provisional remedies such as injunctive relief, attachment, or garnishment by a court having appropriate jurisdiction; provided, however, that you or we may elect to arbitrate any dispute related to such provisional remedies, except in an action by us against you that has been initiated by Us to collect funds that you may owe to us.

Arbitration Award. The arbitrator’s award shall be final and binding unless a party appeals it in writing to the arbitration forum within fifteen days of notice of the award or pursuant to the rules of the arbitration forum, whichever is later. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators selected in accordance with the rules of the same arbitration forum. The panel will consider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. Costs will be allocated in the same manner as allocated before a single arbitrator. An award by a panel is final and binding on the parties after fifteen days of notice of the award or pursuant to the rules of the arbitration forum, whichever is later. A final and binding award is subject to judicial intervention or review only to the extent allowed under the Federal Arbitration Act or other applicable law. A party may seek to have a final and binding award entered as a judgment in any court having jurisdiction.

Governing Law. You and we agree that our relationship includes transactions involving interstate commerce and that these arbitration provisions are governed by, and enforceable under, the Federal Arbitration Act. To the extent state law is applicable, the laws of the State of Michigan shall apply.

Severability, Survival. These arbitration provisions shall survive (a) termination or changes to your accounts or any related services; (b) the bankruptcy of any party; and (c) the transfer or assignment of your Accounts or any related services. If any portion of this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision shall remain in force. No portion of this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision may be amended, severed, or waived absent a written agreement between you and us.

Applicability. Arbitration will not apply to your Account as long as you are an active duty Service Member.

Right to Reject this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision. YOU MAY CHOOSE TO REJECT THIS RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES BY ARBITRATION PROVISION BY SENDING US WRITTEN NOTICE AS DESCRIBED BELOW:

Agreement to the Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision:

1. If you agree to be bound by the above Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision, then no action is needed on your part.

2. If you take no action, then effective immediately your Accounts will be bound by this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision.

Rejection of the Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision:

1. If you do not agree to be bound by this Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision, you must send us written notice that you reject the Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision within 30 days of account opening or within 30 days of receiving this notice, whichever is sooner, including the following information:

   a. Your written notice must include: your name, as listed on your account, your account number, and a statement that you reject the Resolution of Disputes by Arbitration provision, and;

   b. You must send Your written notice to Us at the following address:

   One Detroit Credit Union
   Attention: Compliance
   630 Howard Street
   Detroit, MI 48232

2. PERMITTED TIME FOR FILING A LAWSUIT. The following provision is added to the Agreement:

   You must file any lawsuit or arbitration against us within one year after the cause of action arises, unless federal or state law or an applicable agreement provides for a shorter time. This limit is in addition to limits on notice as a condition of making a claim.
4. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The following provision is added to the Agreement:

EXCEPT WHERE REQUIRED BY LAW OR THIS AGREEMENT SPECIFICALLY PROVIDES OTHERWISE, WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY ACTION OR INACTION EXCEPT FOR OUR INTENTIONAL MISCONDUCT OR GROSS NEGLIGENCE. EXCEPT AS MY BE OTHERWISE REQUIRED BY LAW, YOU AGREE THAT IN NO EVENT SHALL THE CREDIT UNION’S LIABILITY TO YOU EXCEED YOUR ACTUAL DAMAGES OR THE SUM OF $5,000.00, WHICHEVER IS LESS. IN NO EVENT WILL CREDIT UNION BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, LOSS OF ANTICIPATED PROFITS OR OTHER ECONOMIC LOSS IN CONNECTION WITH OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT.

Except as otherwise provided in this Amendment, if any provision contained in this Amendment is in conflict with, or inconsistent with, any provision in any of the Agreement, the provision contained in this Amendment shall govern and control. Except as otherwise provided in this Amendment, all other terms and provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

If you have any questions regarding this Amendment, please contact us at 313.965.8640 or visit any branch.
